

We don't fucking need you.
That is why you hate us.

Hello yuppies, what the fuck is up?

<https://distro.black>

I initially conceived this project as a potentially painful set of contortions involving performer response to audience demand, however....it occurred to me that we're already smiling when we don't want to. Chop the onions, this steak is cooked wrong, could you reconsider your relationship to capital and it's flow internationally and blah blah fucking blah, get off your high horse, "Get me the Manager", and experienced all the entrenched methods of control; the establishment of the managerial class, other sys-chase them out of my home. Not like your rich white ass is paying taxes, either, but shhh....we don't talk about that. Panama Papers, you a crazy conspiracy theorist? Just jealous no one wants to buy your product?-

Oh yeah, and the left has no vision or, wait, transnational capital influences states to straight up KILL everyone who articulates a vision. Or imprisons them.

Or beats them into a vegetative state. The aim here is to produce populations that will shut up and do the labor of killing themselves. You look good in that sun hat and nothing else. You really do. Now off you go, collect resources for the elite few who will even have access to this tech you are so proud of.

country is a fascist hellscape and no amount of funding for the arts from the tax base (stolen land, remember and broken treaties) is going to make that false. The institutionalization of domination as an aesthetic is nearly complete. At this point the will for self-determination is so low that people are desperate to be told what to do. The eroticization of degradation is so total that I'm ready to beg ya to spit on me later.

And, yeah, yeah...it's the damn chinese investors, or it's not my fault property prices exploded or literally, yeah, it's true I took advantage of the situation to force out my renter ~~but~~ never showing up to collect the rent from them and then sent the Bailiff to tems of class traitor control structures, violent thug gangs dressed in uniforms spraying the dispossessed with rubber bullets despite their compliance to utterly unreasonable demands. An RCMP officer literally drove a truck into this body. When my visibly brown _____ went missing while on an outing with her "known to police" abusive partner the police literally took his statement and closed the case. I found myself thinking of time operating as another blank faced drone for a “regenerative” model of capitalism, claiming to replace more greenery than it burns up, the corporation keeps its people steeped in medical coverage, dental (luxury face bones indicative of obedience levels), access to mental health professionals for counseling (who report back to head office, of course, I mean we care about you, right? We want you to feel your best and all that). I mean shit, dog, stop complaining, yeah, the global south has been bombed, mined, extracted but they're the best. It's a meritocracy, gawd!!

The thing is your green capitalist approach operates in a vacuum of denial around the pile of broken, bruised, murdered and dismembered brown/black/I don't know/ red/ yellow bodies that it is stacked upon. Overpopulation is a rich man's myth. The lack of resources was planned and intentionally developed ~~as~~ a systemic approach that demands you "exploit or be exploited". That is the truth of the binaries you are upholding by maintaining any support for capitalist approaches. And that's cool....you don't give a fuck about "others" or you would oppose the continuing concentration of capital and power. Green capitalism demands more labour and more mining. More self-justification in favor of abusive cultural norms with the aim of control. This

you) into fodder for the porn hoe gristmill but come on, at least that way your "friend-boss" can afford an electric car and, you know, if you agree to let us film all your interactions throw on the we'll give 10% on access to solar powered public transit that can withstand flood and fire. Why do you have such a problem with the fact that the money you spend is being transformed into transnational capital to be re-invested by the world's wealthiest and 'em up internet even you a discount your acslashed open, but still most of us can barely survive in the global north but what do you want, do you know how many "people" ~~referent terminology you apply to the Syrian refugees, or those from Iraq, or Vietnam or Myanmar and on and on and on...~~ want "your place"?...and, yeah, but I mean you can't just let them all in for fuck's sake. They could ter-
